WIRES BRYAN HE WILL SIGN BILL

California Governor Favors Anti-Alien Land Measure.

JOHNSON JUSTIFIES ACTION

Message to the Secretary of State Goes Into Details Regarding Conditions Which Led to the Passage of the Act—Law Will Be in Operation After Aug. 10 Unless the Referendum Is Invoked.

Sacramento, Cal., May 15.—Expressing his determination to sign the alien land bill recently passed by the legislature Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California telegraphed to Secretary Bryan a lengthy explanation of the stand taken by the legislature in passing the bill. The message was in answer to the request telegraphed to the governor by Secretary Bryan at the direction of President Wilson that the bill be vetoed.

"What I have tried to do is to set forth California's case," he said, commenting on his message. "There has been a most astonishing lot of misrepresentation indulged in by Eastern newspapers and I want the public to know just where we of California stand."

Part of the governor's message is as follows: "For many years a very grave problem, little understood in the East, has confronted California; a problem which has been viewed with apprehension by the people of this state. When the present constitution of California was adopted more than thirty years ago it contained the following declaration:

"The presence of foreigners ineligible to become citizens of the United States is declared to be dangerous to the wellbeing of the state and the legislature shall discourage their immigration by all means within its power."

Problem Has Become Acute.

"Of late years our problem from another angle has become acute and the agitation has been continuous in the last decade in reference to our agricultural lands until final affirmative action in attempted solution became imperative. This attempted solution is found in the action of our legislature in the passage of the alien land bill. In the phraseology of this bill, in those whom it affects, in its scope and in its purpose we believe we are within our legal and our moral rights, and that we are doing what is imperatively demanded for the protection and preservation of the state. In this enactment we have kept ever in mind our national good faith as evidenced by existing treaties."

"The objections to our bills are based, first, upon the treaty obligations of the nation, and, secondly, upon the assertion that our act is offensive and discriminatory. The bill provides, substantially in its first section that all aliens eligible to citizenship under the laws of the United States may acquire real property in the same manner as citizens of the United States, and the second section provides that all aliens other than those mentioned in the first section may acquire real property in the manner and to the extent and for the purposes prescribed by any treaty now existing between the government of the United States and the nation or country of which such aliens are citizens or subjects, and may, in addition, lease for a period of three years, lands for agricultural purposes."

Treaties Are Part of Law.

"Thus we have made existing treaties a part of our law and thus have we preserved every right that any foreign nation, by international contract, has insisted upon preserving with our national government. "By the law adopted we offer no offense; we make no discrimination. "We of California believe firmly that in our legislative dealings with this alien land question we have violated absolutely no treaty rights."

"And so, with all respect and courtesy, the state of California feels it its bounden duty to citizens to do that which the interests of its people demand; that which the conscience of its people approves; that which violates no treaty rights; that which presents no discrimination and that which can give no just cause for offense."

With the sending of the telegram the controversy over the alien land bill is at an end, so far as the California administration is concerned. Governor Johnson has until June 16 in which to sign the act.

The only contingency that may arise to check its operation after Aug. 10 is the threatened referendum petition which Theodore A. Bell, a Democratic leader, has said he will circulate against the measure.

DEMOCRATS FLAY SUGAR SCHEDULE

Louisiana Senator Leads Fight on Tariff Bill.

LETTER FROM MICHIGAN MAN

Republicans Assist in Placing Long Epistle Before Senate as Part of the Argument Against Proposed Sugar Figures—Writer Calls the Schedule a Boomerang to Knock Out the Democratic Party.

Washington, May 15.—Using an "original Wilson man" from Michigan with a fluent pen for an oracle the anti-free sugar Democrats, led by Senator Ransdell of Louisiana as sailed the Underwood sugar schedule in the senate.

Republicans enjoyed the efforts of the Democratic leaders to prevent the reading of a long letter submitted by Senator Ransdell written by Lewis C. Rowley of Lansing, in which free sugar advocates were characterized as "accursed, unpardonable apostates of Democratic faith," and the free sugar schedule as "a boomerang to knock out the Democratic party."

With Republican votes Senator Ransdell was aided in getting the long epistle before the senate as a part of the argument against the proposed sugar tariff. It precipitated lively discussion between the Louisiana and Senators James, Meyers, Simmons and other Democratic leaders.

In his plea from Michigan, President Wilson's attitude on sugar, the party platform pledges and the president's campaign pledges not to hurt any legitimate industry were recalled, the writer declaring "there is almost hilarious enthusiasm for the Democratic ideal the president will try to do too much."

The Democrats also were forced to hear from this same trenchant Michigan protestant that "the statesman or party leader who in formulating important legislative measures does not take into consideration the psychological effect as well as the ultimate practical results of those measures, is a raw hand at the business."

He said he did not believe President Wilson was "that kind of an immature leader." "I refuse to believe," he continued, "that the president will commit the party to radical courses."

Discussing the attitude of the Democratic party toward the sugar tariff Senator James asked Senator Ransdell if he did not think that the platform of the party gave fair warning to Louisiana. Mr. Ransdell emphatically answered "no," and the Kentucky senator then read from the platform endorsing what the party did last year and demanding reductions to reduce the cost of living.

DR. RUSSELL IS MODERATOR

Unanimously Chosen by the Presbyterian Assembly.

Atlanta, Ga., May 15.—Dr. Robert M. Russell of Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa., unanimously was elected moderator of the United Presbyterian assembly, in session here. Dr. Russell succeeds Dr. Hugh H. Bell of San Francisco.

The name of Dr. Russell was placed before the assembly by Dr. C. D. Proudfoot of Des Moines, Ia. No other nominations were made. The coming moderator was presented with a handsome gavel made from wood taken from the First United Presbyterian Theological seminary founded at Irves, Pa.

CHOSE TO DIE BY SHOOTING

First Execution Under Nevada Law Giving Censured Choke.

Carson, Nev., May 15.—The first legal execution by shooting in Nevada took place at the penitentiary here when Andrius Microvich was put to death for the murder of John Grogerovich in Tonopah May 14, 1912.

Death by shooting was Microvich's choice in preference to the gallows, the Nevada law providing either means, with the selection optional to the condemned.

WIN THE WEBB LAW TEST

Brewers Victorious in First Case at Kansas City, Kan.

Kansas City, May 15.—A test case under the Webb law instituted by Kansas City, Kan., officials last week when the police were ordered to arrest every driver of a brewery wagon found on the streets of that city, ended in victory for the brewers when the case of Lewis Segelbaum, a beer wagon driver, was dismissed in municipal court.

At the time the order of arrest was issued seven drivers were taken into custody and hundreds of cases of beer confiscated.

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT.

Says Disarmament Is a Utopian Dream.

DISARMAMENT IS A DREAM

Dr. Lyman Abbott So Informs Lake Mohonk Conference.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., May 15.—Three hundred delegates to the nineteenth annual Lake Mohonk conference on arbitration heard Dr. Lyman Abbott of New York, presiding as chairman of the opening session, assert that disarmament was as yet a Utopian dream, that "the blow of the fist, the gleam of the sword, the bark of the cannon will continue until some other power greater than that of armed men is found to protect innocence from injustice."

Dr. Abbott's address was interpreted as a reply to the American Peace society, his fellowship in which was recently severed.

DRAWN LINES FIRMER IN FACTIONAL FIGHT

Banquet of Wisconsin Republicans at Madison.

Madison, Wis., May 15.—The long planned harmony banquet of Wisconsin Republicans was held at the gymnasium of the state university at Madison. Those present applauded harmoniously for Robert M. La Follette. But instead of being a get-together meeting of the Republican factions the banquet served only to draw the lines tighter in the factional fight in the state under the leadership of Senator La Follette and Governor McGovern.

Recent developments in the fight included:

Passage by the senate of a bill to prevent the governor from dismissing appointees, as he attempted to do with Insurance Commissioner H. L. Ekern.

Failure of Governor McGovern to attend the banquet.

Presentation at the banquet of a gold watch to Senator George E. Scott, one of the leaders against the governor, and a possible candidate of the La Follette faction for governor in 1914.

Condemnation of the Progressive party movement by Lieutenant Governor Thomas Morris, expected to be a candidate against McGovern next year for the seat of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson.

FATE OF TARIFF BILL UNCERTAIN

Senate May Demand Many Changes.

BIG ALTERATIONS POSSIBLE

Some Democrats Are Opposed to Free Wool and Free Sugar, but Do Not Like Prospect of Conflict With Administration—Committee on Finance Carefully Considers the Measure.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 15.—[Special.]—The senate committee on finance, while not giving hearings to those who want to have changes made in the Underwood bill, is giving such attention to the measure as indicates that changes may be made before it is reported to the senate. During the consideration of the tariff bill in the house the Republicans were constantly pointing out what they called inconsistencies and inequalities, and it was said that the senate would have an opportunity to make quite a number of amendments in order to make the bill symmetrical.

But it is not these little changes that concern the senate so much as real changes, like the proposed restoration of a duty on wool or eliminating the free sugar provision. If these changes are made it will mean a direct contest with the administration. While there are Democrats who want to make the changes, they do not like the idea of placing themselves in antagonism to the president.

A Lost Opportunity.

Many congressional observers are speculating on what might have happened had Joe Bailey remained in the senate. The Underwood bill, with its many free raw materials, is in direct opposition to what Bailey claimed was Democratic doctrine, and he would have made a hard fight against the bill as it passed the house. There are few Democratic senators who believe with Bailey save those whose states produce raw materials, and they have practically abandoned the idea of a duty on raw materials in view of the overwhelming support of the Democrats for such an enlarged free list.

High Cost of Living.

While the high cost of living occasionally was mentioned in the house tariff debates, very little attention was paid to it. The men who think about such things have come to the conclusion that the high cost of living has been chiefly due to the fact that people are spending a great deal of money and buying a lot of things that were once considered luxuries and now believed to be necessities.

The Senate's Easy Way.

When the senate meets at noon it usually wants lunch about 1 o'clock, and it finds an easy way. Some senator wants to make a speech, and he starts reading it. The senators slip away and in an hour or more come back and resume business. There are several senators who are perfectly willing to make speeches under such conditions.

Playing Cards in the Tariff.

Congressman Moore of Philadelphia offered an amendment to the tariff bill to reduce the duty on playing cards from 60 to 50 per cent.

"Does the gentleman use playing cards himself?" asked Jim Mann.

"Not at all," replied Moore.

"If he did," continued Mann, "he would know that the cost of cards does not cut much ice—at the end of the game."

"I suppose," said Harrison of New York, "that the gentleman from Philadelphia, when we reach poker chips, will offer an amendment to make blue chips a luxury and white chips a necessity."

What Donovan Found.

Congressman Donovan of Connecticut was one of the few Democrats in the house that occasionally "kicked over the traces" during the tariff debate. Once he took a shot at Majority Leader Underwood, who was driving the bill along. Underwood remarked that Donovan "had wandered away from the Democratic side of the house."

"I find," retorted Donovan, "that this great expert at repartee is one of the cleverest members that ever came over the pike, but when you undertake to pin him down and ask him an abstract question he turns it over to some other member."

And Underwood smiled and pushed the bill ahead a few notches.

Trouble Enough.

Senator Gallinger does not take kindly to the idea that currency legislation should be pushed at this session. "We have one great subject which is going to engage the senate for two months and make trouble enough," said the New Hampshire senator, "to say nothing of the trouble it will give the country hereafter, and I do not think we should take up another big subject, which will keep us here till snow flies."

"It may be that the tariff is going to make trouble," remarked Senator Bacon of Georgia, "not only during its consideration, but hereafter, and if that be true we ought to be ready to do any good we can in a compensatory manner."

It is the intention of the Democrats of the senate to prepare a currency measure in case it is decided to consider currency at this session.

Fur Animals.

Animals to the number of 70,000,000 are killed yearly for the sake of their fur.

SENATOR TOWNSEND.

Wants Billion Dollars of Emergency Currency.

ASKS BILLION IN CURRENCY

Senator Townsend Would Have Vast Sum Printed for Emergency.

Washington, May 15.—Printing of a billion dollars of emergency currency to be distributed to banks offering acceptable security was proposed in a bill introduced by Senator Townsend of Michigan.

The measure also would authorize the issue of paper money as currency equal to 1 per cent of the nation's wealth.

MURDERS HIS WIFE WITH STOVE POKER

Aged Man Wounds Two Others and Kills Himself.

Sparta, Wis., May 15.—After he had beaten his wife to death with a stove poker William Hogue, seventy years old, a retired farmer, hurried to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Guy Wilson, and when she opened the door mortally wounded her with a fusillade of revolver shots. His son-in-law, rushing to his wife's rescue, was shot twice in the face and seriously wounded.

Hogue then fled to his home, pursued by persons that had been attracted by the shots. Getting a razor from a trunk he lay down beside his dying wife and cut his throat. He was dead when the police arrived.

Hogue and his wife had quarreled frequently regarding the disposition of their property. They were well to do.

NO HOPE FOR "HAPPY JACK"

Slayer of "Paddy the Priest" Must Die in Electric Chair.

Albany, N. Y., May 15.—"Happy Jack" Mulroney, convicted of the murder of Patrick McBreen, known as "Paddy the Priest," a New York saloon keeper, in October, 1911, will be electrocuted at Sing Sing prison next Monday. Governor Sulzer announced he would not interfere.

Mulroney was to have been electrocuted on March 7 last, but a personal appeal to the governor for a respite in which to prove that he would go to his death "the victim of the underworld's code of morals," which calls a "squealer" the "most contemptible thing on earth."

The executive granted the request, but after an examination decided against Mulroney.

Washington, May 15.—Two engineers of the geological survey have been ordered by Director Smith to the headwaters of the Miami river in Ohio to make a topographical survey of the surrounding territory, with a view to establishing water lines and reservoirs for use in times of flood.

A hydraulic engineer will be sent to make a preliminary investigation in the vicinity of Dayton, Middle-town, Miamisburg and Hamilton, looking toward flood prevention and relief in the future.

The governor announced it as his belief that "society had committed a crime against Patten." He sent the paroled man to a farm "to become a citizen."

Mrs. Pennybacker's subject was "Some Menaces That Threaten the American Home."

Some Loss of Life and Much Damage in Nebraska.

TWELVE PERISH AT SEWARD

Residence Portion of That Place Is Hardest Hit and Most of the Killed Were Caught in the Wreckage of Their Homes—Rural Districts Said to Have Suffered Severely, but Communication Is Severed.

Seward, Neb., May 15.—A tornado which took a toll of twelve lives, injured thirty odd persons and destroyed more than a third of the town occurred here. Twenty-two residences, including several of the best in the town, were partially wrecked. The business portion did not greatly suffer.

Three persons are also reported dead at Tomara.

The tornado formed northwest of the city and swept across the country, taking many buildings along its course. It struck the western, or residence portion of Seward and swept everything in its path. It came on the town so suddenly that only part of the people had opportunity to run to cellars or other places of refuge. Those killed generally were caught in the wreckage of their homes, which were crushed to pieces like egg shells.

The tornado, after passing through Seward, continued on its course to the northeast, doing great damage to rural homes. Reports say that the towns of Lushion, Grafton, Utica and McCool were in the path of the twister, but all wire communication to those points was destroyed by the storm.

Appeals to Lincoln for Aid.

An appeal was sent to Lincoln before the one remaining telephone wire was lost for physicians and undertakers.

Reports from the surrounding sections indicate that the effects of the tornado were felt over a wide range of territory, but until telephone communication is restored the number of casualties will not be known.

The tornado was followed in Seward by a hail and rain storm which added much to the already miserable condition of the sufferers.

Several of the business places not injured by the storm were turned into temporary morgues and hospitals. Several of those injured are in a serious condition and several may die.

Reports coming from towns west and north indicate that the destruction of property was extensive in several places, McCool Junction and Tomara being the hardest hit.

The path of the tornado was from a few hundred yards to half a mile wide and cut a path fifty miles long in which were many fine farm houses and other buildings.

Severe Storm at Omaha.

Omaha, May 15.—A storm of tornado fury struck the southern part of Omaha unroofing numerous houses and doing other damage. Coming so quickly after the Easter tornado, in which more than 100 lives were lost, many hundreds of South End inhabitants rushed to cellars and other places of refuge.

PENNSYLVANIA FOREST FIRE

Blazing Oil and Gas Wells Adding to the Danger.

Warren, Pa., May 15.—A disastrous fire is sweeping the forests near this city. Smoke fills the Tionesta valley and flames can be seen high above the hills miles from this city. The fire has reached the edge of Hallton, a lumber town. A special train on the Tionesta Valley railroad safely carried the women and children of Hallton to Warren. Several houses at Hallton have been destroyed and desperate efforts are being made to prevent the destruction of the town.

A wide territory of timber land is in flames, while adding to the danger are many blazing oil and gas wells and heavily flamed oil tanks. The damage cannot be estimated.

WIRES BRYAN HE WILL SIGN BILLCalifornia Governor Favors Anti-Alien Land Measure.

JOHNSON JUSTIFIES ACTION

Message to the Secretary of State
Goes Into Details Regarding Conditions Which Led to the Passage of the Act—Law Will Be in Operation
After Aug. 10 Unless the Referendum is Invoked.

Sacramento, Cal., May 15.—Expressing his determination to sign the legislature Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California telegraphed to Secretary Bryan a lengthy explanation of the stand taken by the legislature in passing the bill. The message was in answer to the request telegraphed to the governor by Secretary Bryan
at the direction of President Wilson
that the bill be vetoed.

"What I have tried to do is to set forth California's case," he said, commenting on his message. "There has been a most astonishing lot of misrepresentation indulged in by Eastern newspapers and I want the public to know just where we of California stand."

Part of the governor's message is
as follows:

"For many years a very grave problem, little understood in the East,
has confronted California; a problem
which has been viewed with appen-sion by the people of this state. When the present constitution of California was adopted more than thirty years ago it contained the following declaration:

"The presence of foreigners inelligible to become citizens of the United States is declared to be dangerous to the wellbeing of the state and the legislature shall discourage their immigration by all means within its power."

Problem Has Become Acute.

"Of late years our problem from another angle has become acute and the agitation has been continuous in the last decade in reference to our agricultural lands until final affirmative action in attempted solution became imperative. This attempted solution is found in the action of our legislature in the passage of the alien land bill. In the phraseology of this bill, in those whom it affects, in its scope and in its purpose we believe we are within our legal and our moral rights, and that we are doing what is imperatively demanded
for the protection and preservation of the state. In this enactment we have kept ever in mind our national good faith as evidenced by existing treaties.

"The objections to our bills are based, first, upon the treaty obligations of the nation, and, secondly, upon the assertion that our act is offensive and discriminatory. The bill provides, substantially in its first section that all aliens eligible to citizenship under the laws of the United States may acquire real property in the same manner as citizens of the United States, and the second section provides that all aliens other than those mentioned in the first section may acquire real property in the manner and to the extent and for the purposes prescribed by any treaty now existing between the government of the United States and the nation or country of which such aliens are citizens or subjects,
and may, in addition, lease for a period of three years, lands for agricultural purposes.

Treaties Are Part of Law.

"Thus we have made existing treaties a part of our law and thus have we preserved every right that any foreign nation, by international contract, has insisted upon preserving with our national government.

"By the law adopted we offer no offense; we make no discrimination.

"We of California believe firmly that in our legislative dealings with this alien land question we have violated absolutely no treaty rights.

"And so, with all respect and courtesy, the state of California feels it its bounden duty to citizens to do that which the interests of its people demand; that which the conscience of its people approves; that which violates no treaty rights; that which presents no discrimination and which can give no just cause for offense."

With the sending of the telegram
the controversy over the alien land
bill is at an end, so far as the California administration is concerned.
Governor Johnson has until June 16 in which to sign the act.

The only contingency that may arise to check its operation after Aug. 10 is the threatened referendum petition which Theodore A. Bell, a Democratic leader, has said he will circulate against the measure.

in the senate.

Republicans enjoyed the efforts of the Democratic leaders to prevent the reading of a long letter submitted by Senator Ransdell written by Lewis C.
Rowley of Lansing, in which free sugar advocates were characterized as
"accursed, unpardonable apostates of Democratic faith," and the free sugar schedule as "a boomerang to knock out the Democratic party."

With Republican votes Senator Ransdell was aided in getting the long epistle before the senate as a part of the argument against the proposed sugar tariff. It precipitated lively discussion between the Louisi-
anians and Senators James, Meyers, Simmons and other Democratic leaders.

In his plea from Michigan, President Wilson's attitude on sugar, the party platform pledges and the president's campaign pledges not to hurt
any legitimate industry were recalled,
the writer declaring "there is almost imminent danger that in his almost hilarious enthusiasm for the Democratic ideals the president will try to do too much."

The Democrats also were forced to hear from this same trenchant Michigan protestant that "the statesman or party leader who in formulating important legislative measures does not take into consideration the psychological effect as well as the ultimate practical results of those measures, is a raw hand at the business."

He said he did not believe President Wilson was "that kind of an immature leader." "I refuse to believe,"
he continued, "that the president will commit the party to radical courses."

Discussing the attitude of the Democratic party toward the sugar tariff
Senator James asked Senator Ransdell if he did not think that the platform of the party gave fair warning to Louisiana. Mr. Ransdell emphatically answered "no," and the Kentucky senator then read from the platform endorsing what the party did last year and demanding reductions to reduce the cost of living.

terian Assembly.

Atlanta, Ga., May 15.—Dr. Robert
M. Russell of Westminster college,
New Wilmington, Pa., unanimously was elected moderator of the United Presbyterian assembly, in session here.
Dr. Russell succeeds Dr. Hugh H. Bell of San Francisco.

The name of Dr. Russell was placed before the assembly by Dr. C. D.
Proudfoot of Des Moines, Ia. No other nominations were made.
The coming moderator was presented with a handsome gavel made from wood taken from the First United Presbyterian Theological seminary
founded at Irves, Pa.

CHOSE TO DIE BY SHOOTING

First Execution Under Nevada Law
Giving Capital Punishment.

Carson, Nev., May 15.—The first legal execution by shooting in Nevada took place at the penitentiary here when Andrius Microvich was put to death for the murder of John Grogervich in Tonopah May 14, 1912.

Death by shooting was Microvich's
choice in preference to the gallows,
the Nevada law providing either means, with the selection optional to the condemned.

WIN THE WEBB LAW TEST

Brewers Victorious in First Case at Kansas City, Kan.

Kansas City, May 15.—A test case under the Webb law instituted by Kansas City, Kan., officials last week
when the police were ordered to arrest every driver of a brewery wagon
found on the streets of that city,
ended in victory for the brewers
when the case of Lewis Segelbaum, a beer wagon driver, was dismissed in municipal court.

At the time the order of arrest was issued seven drivers were taken into custody and hundreds of cases of beer confiscated.

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT.

Says Disarmament
Is a Utopian Dream.

DISARMAMENT IS A DREAM

Dr. Lyman Abbott So Informs Lake
Mohonk Conference.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., May 15.—Three hundred delegates to the nineteenth annual Lake Mohonk conference on arbitration heard Dr. Lyman Abbott of New York, presiding as chairman of the opening session, assert that disarmament was as yet a Utopian dream, that "the blow of the fist, the gleam of the sword, the bark of the cannon will continue until some other power greater than that of armed men is found to protect innocence from injustice."

Dr. Abbott's address was interpreted as a reply to the American Peace society, his fellowship in which was recently severed.

DRAWS LINES FIRMER
IN FACTIONAL FIGHTBanquet of Wisconsin Republicans at Madison.

Madison, Wis., May 15.—The long planned harmony banquet of Wisconsin Republicans was held at the gymnasium of the state university at Madison. Those present applauded harmoniously for Robert M. La Follette. But instead of being a get together meeting of the Republican factions the banquet served only to draw the lines tighter in the factional fight in the state under the leadership of Senator La Follette and Governor Mc-Govern.

Recent developments in the fight include:

Passage by the senate of a bill to prevent the governor from dismissing appointees, as he attempted to do with Insurance Commissioner H. L.
Ekern.

Failure of Governor McGovern to attend the banquet.
Presentation at the banquet of a gold watch to Senator George E.
Scott, one of the leaders against the governor, and a possible candidate of the La Follette faction for governor in 1914.

Condemnation of the Progressive party movement by Lieutenant Governor Thomas Morris, expected to be a candidate against McGovern next year for the seat of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson.

FATE OF TARIFF
BILL UNCERTAINSenate May Demand Many Changes.

Some Democrats Are Opposed to Free
Wool and Free Sugar, but Do Not Like Prospect of Conflict With Administration—Committee on Finance Carefully Considers the Measure.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, May 15.—[Special].—
The senate committee on finance, while not giving hearings to those who want to have changes made in the Underwood bill, is giving such attention to the measure as indicates that changes may be made before it is reported to the senate. During the consideration of the tariff bill in the house the Republicans were constantly pointing out what they called inconsistencies and inequalities, and it was said that the senate would have an opportunity to make quite a number of amendments
in order to make the bill symmetrical.

But it is not these little changes that concern the senate so much as real changes, like the proposed restoration of a duty on wool or eliminating the free sugar provision. If these changes are made it will mean a direct contest with the administration. While there are Democrats who want to make the changes, they do not like the idea of placing themselves in antagonism to the president.

A Lost Opportunity.

Many congressional observers are speculating on what might have happened had Joe Bailey remained in the senate. The Underwood bill, with its many free raw materials, is in direct opposition to what Bailey claimed was Democratic doctrine, and he would have made a hard fight against the bill as it passed the house. There are few Democratic senators who believe with Bailey save those whose states produce raw materials, and they have practically abandoned the idea of a duty on raw materials in view of the overwhelming support of the Democrats for such an enlarged free list.

High Cost of Living.

While the high cost of living occasionally was mentioned in the house tariff debates, very little attention was paid to it. The men who think about such things have come to the conclusion that the high cost of living has been chiefly due to the fact that people are spending a great deal of money and buying a lot of things that were once considered luxuries and now believed to be necessities.

The Senate's Easy Way.

When the senate meets at noon it usually wants lunch about 1 o'clock, and it finds an easy way. Some senators want to make a speech, and he starts reading it. The senators slip away and in an hour or more come back and resume business. There are several senators who are perfectly willing to make speeches under such conditions.

Playing Cards in the Tariff.

Congressman Moore of Philadelphia offered an amendment to the tariff bill to reduce the duty on playing cards
from 60 to 50 per cent.

"Does the gentleman use playing cards himself?" asked Jim Mann.

"Not at all," replied Moore.

"If he did," continued Mann, "he would know that the cost of cards does not cut much ice—at the end of the game."

"I suppose," said Harrison of New York, "that the gentleman from Philadelphia, when we reach poker days,
will offer an amendment to make blue chips a luxury and white chips a necessity."

What Donovan Found.

Congressman Donovan of Connecticut was one of the few Democrats in the house that occasionally "kicked over the traces" during the tariff debate. Once he took a shot at Majority Leader Underwood, who was driving the bill along. Underwood remarked that Donovan "had wandered away from the Democratic side of the house."

"I find," retorted Donovan, "that this great expert at repartee is one of the cleverest members that ever came over the pike, but when you undertake to pin him down and ask him an abstract question he turns it over to some other member."

And Underwood smiled and pushed
the bill ahead a few notches.

Trouble Enough.

Senator Gallinger does not take kindly to the idea that currency legislation should be pushed at this session. "We have one great subject which is going to engage the senate for two months and make trouble enough," said the New Hampshire senator. "To say nothing of the trouble it will give the country hereafter, and I do not think we should take up another big subject, which will keep us here till snow flies."

"It may be that the tariff is going to make trouble," remarked Senator Bacon of Georgia, "not only during its consideration, but hereafter, and if that be true we ought to be ready to do any good we can in a compensatory manner."

It is the intention of the Democrats of the senate to prepare a currency measure in case it is decided to consider currency at this session.

Fur Animals.

Animals to the number of 70,000,000
are killed yearly for the sake of their fur.

SENATOR TOWNSEND.

Wants Billion Dollars
of Emergency Currency.

Senator Townsend Would Have Vast Sum Printed for Emergency.

Washington, May 15.—Printing of a billion dollars of emergency currency to be distributed to banks offering acceptable security was proposed in a bill introduced by Senator Townsend
of Michigan.

The measure also would authorize the issue of paper money as currency equal to 1 per cent of the nation's wealth.

MURDERS HIS WIFE
WITH STOVE POKERAged Man Wounds Two Others
and Kills Himself.

Sparta, Wis., May 15.—After he had beaten his wife to death with a stove
poker William Hogue, seventy years old, a retired farmer, hurried to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Guy Wilson, and when she opened the door mortal wounds her with a fusillade
of revolver shots. His son-in-law, rushing to his wife's rescue, was shot
twice in the face and seriously wounded.

Hogue then fled to his home, pursued by persons that had been attracted by the shots. Getting a razor from a trunk he lay down beside his dying wife and cut his throat. He was dead when the police arrived.

Hogue and his wife had quarreled frequently regarding the disposition of their property. They were well to do.

NO HOPE FOR "HAPPY JACK"

Slayer of "Paddy the Priest" Must Die in Electric Chair.

Albany, N. Y., May 15.—"Happy Jack" Mulroney, convicted of the murder of Patrick McBreen, known as "Paddy the Priest," a New York saloon keeper, in October, 1911, will be executed at Sing Sing prison next Monday. Governor Sulzer announced
he would not interfere.

Mulroney was to have been electrocuted on March 7 last, but a personal appeal to the governor for a respite in which to prove that he would go to his death "the victim of the underworld's code of morals," which calls a "squealer" the "most contemptible thing on earth."

The executive granted the request,
but after an examination decided against Mulroney.

view to establishing water lines and reservoirs for use in times of flood.

in the vicinity of Dayton, Middletown, Miamisburg and Hamilton, looking toward flood prevention and relief in the future.

of his thirty years of life in prison for no other crime than the theft of a $3 watch and a meal Arthur Patten was paroled from the penitentiary by Governor Hodges.

The governor announced it as his belief that "society had committed a crime against Patten." He sent the paroled man to a farm "to become a citizen."

Excepting two weeks' time Patten
has been in custody since he was seven years old, when he was sent to the

That Threaten the Home."

Chanute, Kan., May 15.—High school girls who wore "puffs" and "rats" and other "false hairs" were rebuked by Mrs. Percy Pennybacker of Austin, Tex., president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, in an address to the Kansas Federation of Women's clubs here. Mrs. Pennybacker's subject was "Some Menaces That Threaten the American Home."

"When I see young girls thus defying the laws of health and good taste," said she, "I wonder why we cannot induce our daughters to linger longer
in the golden age of girlhood."

OLD PRACTICE ABOLISHED

After July 1, All Chattel Mortgages are to be Recorded at Register of Deeds' Office

On and after July 1 all chattel mortgages, bills of sale of chattels and conditional sales contracts are to be filed at the register of deeds office instead of with the village, township or city clerks, as has been the custom in the past. The law making the change was passed at the last session of the legislature.

Register of Deeds and Registrar of Titles A. G. Trommald has already made application to the county commissioners for more vault room to take care of the increased number of papers to be filed with him.

Effective July 1 all city, village and township clerks are required to put their records in shape and take them to the register of deeds on June 30 next.

After the law becomes operative the papers will go direct to the register of deeds for filing and will no longer be accepted for filing in the local offices. The law does not cover the filing of assignments of wages and since they are not required to be filed to make them legal the practice will no doubt in time become inoperative. At present nearly every transaction of this nature goes to the village or city clerk for filing but only through a practice instituted several years ago. Chattel mortgages and conditional sales contracts have always been filed to perfect and protect them legally but bills of sale and assignments have only been filed at the option of the owner.

The new law is bound to be of considerable annoyance in the beginning but after once understood and as soon as it becomes a practice it will work the same as it does in other states. North Dakota, for instance, has had this law in effect for several years and bankers, business men and others requiring a copy for their files, instead of going to the city clerk for their information, have fallen into the habit of taking a copy, uncanceled, at the time the mortgage is made and this method perfects their files for handy reference.

The law effective July 1 provides a fee for the register for taking care of the new business and for certified copies should any be wished.

Pains in the Stomach

If you continually complain of pains in the stomach, your liver or your kidneys are out of order. Neglect may lead to dropsy, kidney trouble, diabetes or Bright's disease. Thousands recommend Electric Bitters as the very best stomach and kidney medicine made. H. T. Alston, of Raleigh, N. C., who suffered with pain in the stomach and back, writes: "My kidneys were deranged and my liver did not work right. I suffered much, but Electric Bitters was recommended and I improved from the first dose. I now feel like a new man." It will improve you, too. Only 50c and $1.00. Recommended by H. P. BACKACHE IS A DANGER SIGNAL

Kidney Troubles, Bladder Disorders, Rheumatism and Serious Diseases Follow

There are other symptoms, such as pains in the region of the kidneys, nervousness, dizziness, tired and wornout feeling, weak bladder, or urinary troubles which are just as dangerous, for the slightest kidney derangement if neglected, may develop into the deadly Bright's Disease, Dropsy or Diabetes.

It is not only dangerous, but needless for you to suffer and endure the tortures of these troubles for the new discovery, Hindipo, promptly ends all such misery.

There is no more effective remedy known for kidney, bladder trouble and rheumatism than this new scientific preparation, because it removes the cause. It soaks right into the kidneys through the walls and linings, cleans out the clogged up pores, neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause those terrible rheumatic pains, and makes the kidneys filter the poison from the blood and drives it out of the system.

Three doses of Hindipo a day for a few days is often all that is ever needed to relieve the worst backache or overcome disagreeable urinary disorders and you can take it with the utmost confidence that nothing on earth will so quickly reach the worst case of kidney, bladder trouble or rheumatism.

You will find Hindipo different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. An original package costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if Hindipo should fail in a single case. 50c a box at Johnson's Pharmacy. From 45 to 50 pupils will receive diplomas on commencement night and will represent all classes of citizenship in Brainerd being the largest class in the history of Brainerd schools.

The class will number in its membership pupils of unusual talent along particular lines. Some members of the class have made unusual records in scholarship. Others have displayed a special talent along musical lines and still others have proven themselves exceptional in the matter of public speaking or in dramatic efforts.

On the whole, the class is exceptional in quality as well as in quantity and its members as they go out from the school will undoubtedly give a good account of themselves in the future.

The commencement exercises will be held on June 2 in the Brainerd opera house and will consist of an address by the high school choruses and glee club, assisted by the school orchestra, and the main address of the evening, to be given by Dr. M. JACOB HESS PASSES AWAY

Father of Alderman George W. Hess Expired This Morning at His Home 619 Pine Street

Jacob Hess, aged 63, for many years a resident of Brainerd, expired this morning at his home, 619 Pine street, death being due to pneumonia and kidney trouble. Mr. Hess had made his home in Brainerd the last 11 years.

Before coming to Brainerd he lived at Eden Valley, where he had a large farm. He was an old settler there and was prominent in public affairs, being a member of the school board and also for years the town clerk of Eden Lake township.

Mr. Hess conducted a large boarding house on Laurel street in this city for seven years. Later he bought the pool room on the corner of South Seventh and Front streets. Mr. Hess was of a most kindly nature and readily made friends.

Forty-one years ago he was married to Miss Emma Welliver and to them several children were born, of whom two are living, Alderman Geo. W. Hess of Brainerd, and Mrs. C. B. Talbot, of Akelay. His three brothers were George E. Hess of Fremont, Ohio, and Charles Hess and Will Hess of Clyde, Ohio. His two sisters were Mrs. George Welliver and Mrs. Henry Covell of Clyde, Ohio. He leaves six grandchildren, three boys and three girls. Relatives have been communicated with and as soon as they can be heard from the funeral arrangements will be announced.

The sympathy of the community is extended the widow, children and other members of the family in this, their sad hour of bereavement.

SETS FIRE TO BEDDING

Smoke Pours Out of City Jail and Fire Department Responds to Alarm in Afternoon

Carl Hanson, arrested shortly after noon on a charge of being disorderly was taken to the city lockup and lodged in a cell.

He lay on a mattress and while smoking set fire to the bedding. Smoke filled the little cell and poured out of the jail. A fire alarm was turned in and some time was lost opening the place as no one near by had a key. Eventually Chief Quinn was found by John Brady who raced across lots and brought the key.

When the man was fished out he had almost succumbed. The smoke was very dense and the odor of burnt mattresses was enough to choke a man. Hanson was removed to the county jail and Dr. Joseph Nicholson was summoned.

Hanson is married and lives in Southeast Brainerd. He felt despondent today about money matters and may have taken a drop too much.

UNIVERSITY

WEEK IN JUNE

Six Afternoon and Evening Programs
at Opera House From June 9
to 14 Inclusive

A SEASON TICKET ONLY $1.00

A Wealth of Instruction Offered as Well as Entertainment of a Lighter Vein

University week this year will be held during the entire week June 9th to 14th inclusive. A full program of the lectures and entertainment are given below. The price this year for season tickets has been reduced to the minimum, the nominal amount of one dollar for the entire week both afternoon and evening which would bring the admission to season ticket holders down to a cost of less than ten cents for each entertainment.

Business men of the town have guaranteed the expenses for the undertaking and the Ladies Musical club will handle the ticket sale and receive any surplus above expenses which may accrue.

The "University Week" idea is an effort to bring the university and its salaried instructors into closer touch with the people of the state who support that institution. It is bound to grow from year to year into something more than a week of Chautauqua during the summer. If mean in time that the Wisconsin idea of employing the university to educate all the people of the state along all useful and practical lines including governmental, commercial, social and industrial will be developed in our own state.

Don't stand back and criticize and find fault even though you would like to have the plan arranged somewhat differently. The cost is but a trifle to any one interested in public education and general improvement, the movement is in the right direction and is in no sense a money making proposition for any one. The attractions will be superior to those offered a year ago as the university has had opportunity to profit by last year's mistakes. The single attractions, the play by the Dramatic club, the musical program by the University Glee club, and the lecture by Dr. William B. Forbush on the "Heart of a Boy" or "The Challenge of the Century" or the lecture by Dr. Albert E. Jenks on "Living With Head Hunters" are each evening entertainments that would be cheap at fifty cents admission and well worth the money, all of which will be included under the one dollar season ticket.

Look over the entire program given below very carefully and see if it is not worth your while to invest the small amount of one dollar and thereby help "Boost for Brainerd."

From 10 to 12 each day the members of the staff of lecturers will be glad to meet the people of the town and surrounding country at this time to visit and to learn about the various interests of the community.

BREAKING SEALS ON CARS

This is a Most Dangerous Proceeding and on Interstate Shipments Especially So

Special Agent J. B. Williams, of Duluth, while in the city gave the Dispatch the new federal law bearing on interstate traffic. Unlawfully breaking the seals on railroad cars containing interstate or foreign shipments, unlawfully entering such cars, stealing freight and express packages or baggage or articles in process of transportation in interstate shipment, and feloniously transporting such freight or express packages or baggage or article therefrom from one district into another of the United States, and the felonious possession or reception of the same, is punishable in each case by a fine of not more than $5,000 or not more than ten years imprisonment or both, and prosecutions therefor may be instituted in any district wherein the crime shall have been committed.

This takes, for instance, the unlawful breaking of seals on cars containing interstate shipments, from local or state courts and places the prosecution in the federal court. It is just as dangerous breaking into such a freight car or stealing a piece of baggage as it is to break into a post office.

This has been published at length at Mr. Williams' suggestion to show young boys and others that railway property and the freight, express or baggage carried is now under federal protection and as such cannot be tampered with.

CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY

The New Minnesota Tax Laws—
Crow Wing County Has Highest Ratio of Any County

The Minneapolis Journal in commenting on the new law for the classification of property says:

"The new Minnesota tax law for the classification of property must be tried out before its effect can be precisely estimated. It will have no effect on the assessment now being made, but in 1914 the assessors for the first time in the history of the state will have legal warrant for assessing property at less than its real value. Hitherto the law has provided that all property must be assessed at its true value, but this has been a dead letter. The practice has been to assess property at various ratios, depending on the locality and the kind of property. The result has been inequalities and injustices of all sorts.

In the last report of the State Tax commission an effort has been made to ascertain the true value of property and the ratio of assessed value thereto. The disclosures are astonishing. It appears that for the whole state the ratio of assessed valuation to real value, including both real and personal property, in 1911 was 32.49 per cent or a little less than one-third. If this ratio had been maintained the state over, no injustice would have resulted. But there are wide variations. The county with the highest ratio is Crow Wing, 42.60 per cent; the county with the lowest ratio is Morrison, 22.52 per cent. Curiously enough, these two counties are contiguous. The Crow Wing farmer thus pays nearly twice as much state taxes relatively as his neighbor over the line in Morrison.

Here are other examples of abnormally high ratios: Ramsey, 42.35; Lake, 43.34; Hennepin, 37.70; Itasca, 37.59; St. Louis, 36.90; Mahoning, 36.17.

Under the new law it will be the duty of the tax commission to see that these inequalities are leveled up, that is, so far as they occur in the same classes of property. There are notable discriminations, however, between classes of property. For example, all platted land is to be assessed at forty per cent of its true value, while farm and other lands go at a third of their true value. This is a discrimination against cities and villages, and in favor of the farmer. Nevertheless, it will be possible under the new law to attain a valuation over the whole state that will be much fairer to everyone. The tax commission, working under the present antiquated township assessor system, will doubtless have much trouble in enforcing the law everywhere, but gradually it will bring about a leveling process that has not been possible heretofore."

Measure Paint Value by the Time it Lasts Not by first cost

DON'T think "paint is paint." There are as many different qualities of paint as there are manufacturers of that staple product. Some paint is put out to sell at a price, no matter how cheap—the ingredients are a secondary consideration.

Now, Bridgeport Standard Prepared Paint is "made up to a standard, not down to a price." If there were any way of making it better; if there were any way to improve its quality; if anything could be done to enhance its value, it would be done.

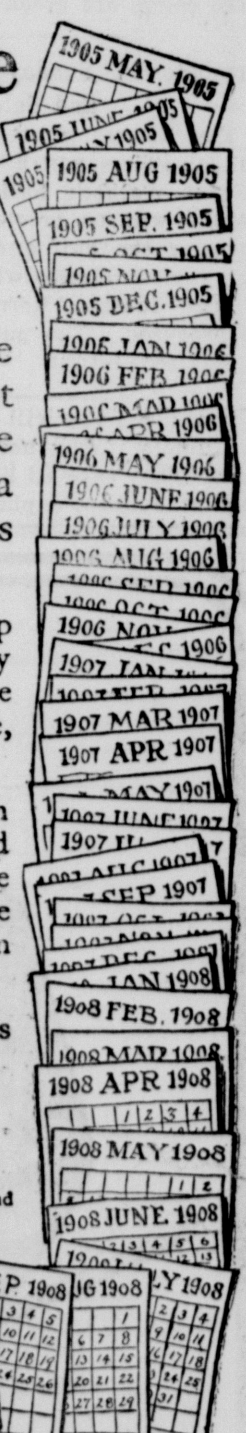

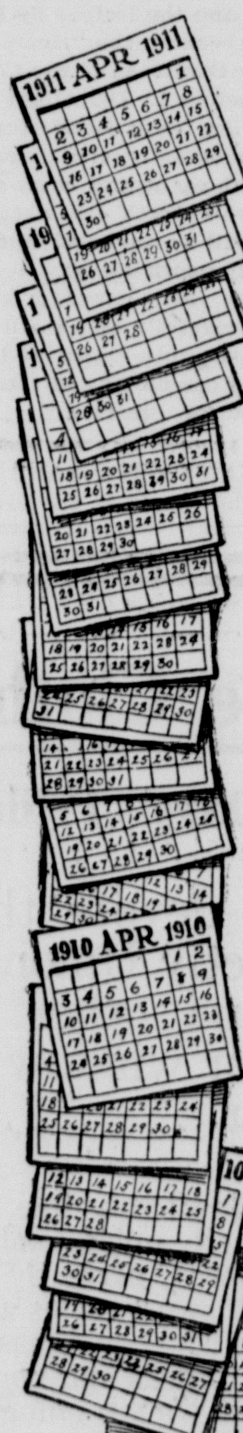

Bridgeport Standard Prepared Paint is made from scientific formulas of the best ingredients obtainable, and when properly applied will outlast any other paint on the market. It will hold its appearance longer, and the house painted with it will require repainting less frequently than if any other paint is used.

You may be able to buy prepared paints that cost you less per gallon, but they will cost you more per year.

Measure Paint Value by the Time it Lasts Not by first cost

DON'T think "paint is paint." There are as many different qualities of paint as there are manufacturers of that staple product. Some paint is put out to sell at a price, no matter how cheap—the ingredients are a secondary consideration.

Now, Bridgeport Standard Prepared Paint is "made up to a standard, not down to a price." If there were any way of making it better; if there were any way to improve its quality; if anything could be done to enhance its value, it would be done.

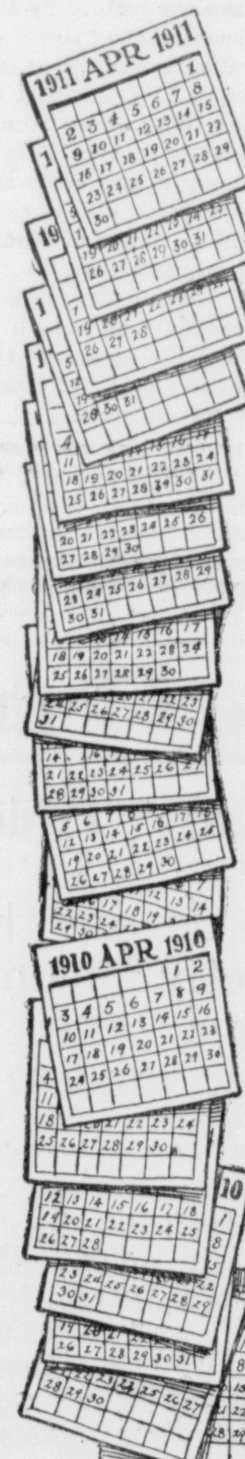

Bridgeport Standard Prepared Paint is made from scientific formulas of the best ingredients obtainable, and when properly applied will outlast any other paint on the market. It will hold its appearance longer, and the house painted with it will require repainting less frequently than if any other paint is used.

You may be able to buy prepared paints that cost you less per gallon, but they will cost you more per year.
